

HARRY JESUS IS REARRESTED FOR SECOND OFFENSE

Charged With Assault With Intent to Kill, Also for Larceny.

Harry Jesus, 510 Short st., who was arrested Thursday night on a charge of grand larceny and returned on $1000 bonds, will answer to a second count of assault and battery with intent to kill when he is arraigned before City Judge John Ham, Monday morning.

Jesus was arrested Thursday night on a charge of taking $35 from Alvaro Martinez and after being pinned under a $1000 bond he was released. He then returned to the story told Deputy Pros. E. J. Bowers, returned to the Hungarian flats on E. Battell st. and proceeded to "make it hot" for Roger Varela who he believed had him arrested. In the argument that followed Jesus drew a knife and attempted to use it on Varela, but was stopped by a number of witnesses who rushed to Varela's assistance, the complaining witness stated. Jesus was rearrested Friday on the second charge which was preferred by Charles Santos, a witness of the affray.

LYNELLE MARTLING, LIBRARIAN, RESIGNS

Will Leave for Pittsburgh to Specialize in Children's Library Work.

Miss Lynelle Martling has resigned as librarian of the Mishawaka public library, her resignation to take effect Aug. 15. Miss Martling will leave on a two weeks' vacation and Sept. 1 will go to Pittsburgh, Pa., to specialize in children's library work. Miss Martling began her library work here in 1915 when she was the high school librarian. She later graduated from the Indiana library school at Butler college, Indianapolis and became first assistant at the local public library in 1917. In 1919 she was appointed librarian and has served faithfully in that position since. Miss Martling has been assisted in the local library by the following: Hilda Hartwick, first assistant; Carolyn Immel, second assistant; Lena G. Kishner, substitute and Miss Helen Shank, a junior in high school as library page and apprentice.

Miss Martling has submitted her report for the year ending July 1922, which shows that on July 1, 1921 there were 2,769 books which were added 586 books (282 adults (324) juvenile purchases, 14 adults and six juvenile gifts; 975 were withdrawn on account of being lost, worn out and destroyed on account of contagious diseases. On July 1, 1922 there were 3,397 book additions. Only $768.24 were spent on new books, and owing to the deficit in the treasury $772.40 was spent on rebinding books.

There are in addition 53 magazines, 16 religious papers donated by the various churches, five newspapers. The newspapers are clipped every six months and clippings added to the clipping and pamphlet files. The record shows that the total number of adult and juvenile borrowers during the year was 73,360.

DOLLAR DAY CROWDS JAM STORES FRIDAY

Merchants Complimented on Genuineness of Bargains Offered.

"Dollar Day" Friday in Mishawaka again drew record crowds to the shopping centers, and the opinion of the merchants was that the event would prove the biggest in the history of such occasions in Mishawaka. When the stores opened their doors at 8:30 o'clock the sidewalks were jammed by women eager to be among the first at the bargain counters. That there were real bargains offered was testified to by the shoppers many of whom carried copies of The News-Times with them as purchasing guides. Genuine panamas at Ulman's, marked at $7.50 and $5, found ready sale among the men folks, some of whom had taken an hour off work to do their shopping. Gilbert's had advertised 100 women's sweaters at $1.00, and these were snapped up in less than 15 minutes after the opening of the doors which were closed three times before 9:30 o'clock, so great was the jam. Winery had a similar experience, the augmented staff of clerks having more to do than seemed physically possible for them to accomplish.

Milady Shop was a center of bustling activity, and that the management had succeeded in drawing such crowds testified to the merit and worth of the bargains advertised. The Fashion Leader, Alexander's, Mishawaka Clothing, People's Dept. Store, the Hub, Golden Rule, Piers, Steins, Van Rie's, Vogt's, Novels—all these stores were crowded to the limit within a few minutes after the opening hour. O. E. Lang & Co., advertised exclusively in The News-Times, a special dollar bargain kitchen ladder-stool combined. Friday morning, and so great was the run on the article that Mr. Lang admitted that he was thoroughly converted to the worth of advertising in the morning newspaper.

Dollar Day sales events were first established in Mishawaka by The News-Times nine years ago, and each successive event has been bigger and better than the preceding ones.

Meditations of A Married Girl

BY HELEN ROWLAND.

My husband's gone to the country! He gone fishing—for six whole days!

I have packed his grip, and found his bathing suit, and put in his handkerchiefs and plenty of soft collars, and helped get his tackle together, and gone with him to the station, and kissed him goodbye.

And NOW, I know just how a man feels when he puts his wife on the train for the seashore, wipce away the last tear.

And SIGHs that great soul-sigh—half of regret and half of relief! Now I know what the song-writer meant when he wrote those words:

"My wife's gone to the country—Hurray! Hurray!"

It doesn't matter how MUCH you love them and miss them. You can't help feeling just a little, weeny bit like a schoolboy who has heard the song ring for recess.

Oh, yes, the house seems very still and lonely—as though somebody had been carried out of it in a casket.

And there are the flowers he left me to remember him by—

I've called up a woman friend whom I've been dying to see for weeks and weeks.

And we are going out and eat the kind of dinner that I have been longing to have for months!

And then we're coming back and get into old satin slippers and sloppy kimonos, and let the pins fall out of our hair, and the powder rub off of our faces.

And talk about boudoir caps and love, and beauty creams, and our souls and brasseires, and philosophy and how to make blackberry mush, and the men we might have married, and women we hate—

And ALL the things that I've been dying to talk about for weeks!

And I'm going to bed when I WANT to.

And going to have my breakfast!

ELKHART STRIKER WOUNDED AS MAN WIELDS CLEAVER

Shots Also Fired in "Free-for-All" Fight at Jordan Home, Declared.

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 11.—(Special).—Attempted violence by three New York Central shoe strikers at the cottage of William Jordan, four miles northeast of here at Heaton lake last night, resulted in one of the marauders receiving a severe facial wound from a meat cleaver and their fight after being fired upon with a shotgun, according to a report made by Jordan to local police officials early today.

Jordan, who is a widower, is employed at the rail shops here and lives with his child and an elderly housekeeper at the lake. Thursday night Jordan claims that three strikers whose names he gave as Larry Donahue, his brother Michael Donahue, and "Breck" Pettit, drove to his cottage and after heading their machine towards town called for him through a bedroom window.

Talk in Dark.

Jordan asked the men what they wanted. On being told that they wanted to see him personally, outside, Jordan says that he became suspicious and on donning his bathrobe, walked to the front door of the house. The visitors demanded that the porch lights be turned on but not caring to awaken his sick child, Jordan refused and told them that they could "talk as well in the dark."

After waiting up on the porch, Larry Donahue made a rush for Jordan but the latter grabbed a meat cleaver hanging beside the door and felled his assailant with a deep cut extending from the temple through the cheek and down to his chin, according to Jordan's story.

Free For All.

Mike Donahue is said to have then rushed at Jordan and the latter in attempting to deal with him in a like manner, claims to have had the cleaver slip from his grasp and over Mike's shoulder.

A rough and tumble fight followed on the lawn during which Jordan was grabbed from behind by all three assailants and struck in the face by one of them.

Neighbors, hearing the noise, began shouting "help" and "murder," with the result that the strikers became frightened and ran for their car. Jordan then claiming to have obtained his gun and to have fired some No. 6 birdshot at the trio. All three of the assailants yelled when fired upon and fled threatening further violence.

To File Warrants.

After telephoning today to local police, Jordan came to town and made his report. Warrants for the three men will be issued, the prosecutor says if Jordan will sign the affidavits.

Larry Donahue was found in the hospital Pole Hospital, with a deep gash in his cheek as Jordan had reported but he refused to make a statement. His brother Michael made a complete denial of the affair while Pettit could not be located.

It is expected that Jordan will sign the required affidavit for the arrests.

PATROL "BLACK BELT" AS GUARD IS SLAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—(By U. P.)—Police reserves patrolled the "black belt" today following the slaying of Policeman Patrick Doherty in a gun battle last night.

Mystery surrounded the killing as Doherty was not on duty at the time.

Contradictory stories were told of the shooting. The story told by the majority of eye witnesses was that Doherty was fired on by three men, believed to be colored. He returned the fire but was fatally wounded. The attackers fled.

Several arrests were made.

ONE DIES IN ATTEMPT TO ROB CRAP GAME

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—(By U. P.)—One man was killed and six wounded, three probably fatally in an attempt to hold up a crap game at a maintenance of way camp near Hazelrider, Ill., today.

Mrs. Hazel Sheppard, wounded in the battle was brought to a Chicago hospital. The others were negroes.

Two negro bandits entered the ring and scooped up about $500. When Mrs. Sheppard refused to give up her diamond ring one of the bandits shot her in the head.

A gun battle was precipitated when someone threw an axe at the bandits. In the exchange of shots one of the bandits was killed and five negroes wounded. The other bandit escaped.
